

PROHIBITION.
MAYOR ARGUES
FOR SALOONS.Rose of Milwaukee in Debate
With Dickie."Saloon Foe of Capital and Labor," Says One."Dry States More Crime and Paupers," Other.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MILWAUKEE, March 25.—Should the nation be "dry" or have numerous saloons regulated in a "wet" manner? This question was thrashed out tonight in a remarkable debate between Mayor David S. Rose, of Milwaukee, and Dr. Samuel Dickie, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, who was here on a tour of inspection.

Resolved, that prohibition as applied to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages is right.

Mr. Dickie defended the affirmative, and Mayor Rose the negative of the question. There was no decision, and the question as to who had proved his case was left to the audience.

Dr. Dickie declared prohibition was right, even if it proved only from an economic standpoint.

"The saloon," he declared, "is the foe of capital, but prominently the enemy of labor. It paralyzes the energy of the workingman, shortens his life, excludes him from many lucrative callings, decreases his power as a producer and throws him into the labor market, a vast mass of debased and unintelligent laborers who compete disastrously with the sober and industrious workmen."

Mayor Rose treated the subject from the ethical and material standpoint. He declared that when the Ten Commandments were written no attempt was made to prohibit drinking, and he declared that when the Ten Commandments were written no attempt was made to prohibit drinking, and he declared that when the Ten Commandments were written no attempt was made to prohibit drinking.

WNITLA KIDNAPER.

Boyle and his wife enjoyed a good night's rest. Mrs. Boyle seemed greatly pleased with her quarters and said
this morning:

"Really, it is pleasant here."

Boyle, too, apparently rested well
last night and was refreshed this morning. Unlike his vivacious wife, however, Boyle's demeanor was more reserved.

BETTER TO PARENTS.

WAYWARD DAUGHTER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
CHICAGO, March 25.—Just William McDermott, retired member of the Chicago fire department, is the father of "Mrs. James H. Boyle," who, with her husband, is charged with the kidnaping of Willie Wilson, a well-known labor leader, who was kidnaped
by the grief-stricken father to-day.McDermott, according to her father, was one of the prettiest and one of the brightest children in the neighborhood when a child. She was given every advantage of education and careful moral training, but as she approached womanhood, she fell into company of which the old fireman did not approve.Quarrels were frequent and about three years ago she stopped. Since that time her history has been a blank to her Chicago kin. Even the man with whom she cast her fortunes was unknown to her. Mr. McDermott has two other daughters who are married.Mr. McDermott said today:
"She has left the path of rectitude and brought disgrace upon us. I shall do nothing for her."It was not only at the McDermott home that "Mrs. Boyle" was recognized as a flight promoter. Among McDermott was identified to followers of pugilism.After she left school, but before she left home, she worked as a stenographer for "Doc" Messenger, known to the Times as a Chicago prizefighter.
His friends of that day were Howard Carr, better known as "Kid" Howard, and a fight promoter. After she left home she had been away from her home only one communication had been received from her. A year ago she called her father up on the telephone and said:"I have been married to a New York millionaire, papa."Becoming the voice, Mr. McDermott hung up the receiver and said he did not wish to hear any more from her.One of "Mrs. Boyle's" sisters is Mrs.
J. J. Obermyer of Kouta, Ind. The other is Mrs. O. B. Halligan of Princeton, Ind.According to the statement of the father, the girl was educated at St.
Vincent's Academy in this city, and
at Finlay's Academy, near Madison, Wis.

PADEREWSKI CUTS.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Ignace Jan
Paderewski, the pianist, has cancelled
the ten remaining engagements of his projected tour and will immediately return to Europe. The reason is his right arm which compelled him to discontinue his tour at Minneapolis.
He has grown worse and his physician advises that he stop playing for a month or more.

TRANSMUTATION OF CARBON.

LONDON, March 25.—Addressing the Chemical Society, Sir William Ramsay
said that he had succeeded in transmuting four different substances into carbon, namely, aluminum, thorium, hydrofluoric acid and bismuth. Experiments with silver nitrate with the object of transforming silver in the same manner, he said, had been negative results.

ROOSEVELT ORDER TO NAVY WIPED OUT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The last remaining vestige of the Roosevelt order taking matters of the battleships and cruisers of the United States Navy was swept away
today, when President Taft directed that an order be issued restoring the marines to exactly the same duties they had performed before they were ordered ashore.After Congress had placed a provision in the Navy Appropriation Bill that a certain percentage of the marine corps should be assigned to ship duty, an order was issued the day before.

ARTISTIC TEMPERAMENT.

MME. EAMES PUTS
BELLBOY TO ROUT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) March 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Emma Eames, the famous soprano, today attacked Valley Morgan, a bellboy at the Hotel Schenley, because he handed her a newspaper with an account of the allegations of Mrs. Eames de Go-gorza that her husband was infatuated with the singer. Mme. De Gogorza is the wife of Emilio Gogorza, who is on a concert tour with Mrs. Eames.Morgan escaped from the soprano with difficulty. Two of his fingers were crushed in the door of her room.
In his excitement he ran into the door,
and a bump was raised over his right eye.It is alleged he received a blow under the chin, which was picked up in the room in response to a ring. Mrs.
Eames, he said, requested him to bringup the morning papers. He went away and returned in a few minutes with several papers.Across the top of one of them the headline told the troupe of Mrs.
De Gogorza with her husband. Morgan said that he was so interested he took the pains to spread out the paper so that the singer might see the full significance of the story at a glance. He alleged that Mrs. Eames took a bump on the head and that Morgan came so rapidly he found it difficult to form impressions of them.Morgan said he believed he was "kicked, hit, bit and poked all in a few moments."The management reluctantly admitted there had been a "row" in the apartments of Mme. Eames, and that the "bellboy" was picked up in the room in response to a ring. Mrs.

inflicting a serious wound. She was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital, where her condition is regarded as critical. She was employed formerly as a clerk in a department store on Market street, but for some time has been out of work and has been despondent.

Mrs. Shaw, who lives with her husband, has been laboring under the delusion that she had been employed from the store where she had been employed because she was suspected of stealing some valuable ostrich plume. She said she was falsely accused and brooded over the matter night and day. She said the plume was about her all the time and that she could hear them waving above her head at night. The proprietor of the establishment where she formerly worked denied that she had been charged with theft, saying that she was a valued employee and left their service of her own accord.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL RESEARCHES

SAVANTS WILL EXPLORE MOUNDS IN MISSOURI VALLEY.

Important Evidences of the Ancient Races Have Been Found and Further Information Will Be Gained by Scientific Investigation During Coming Summer.

The greatest gathering of archaeologists and anthropologists this country has ever seen is to be held at the Missouri River Valley next summer, where almost every university and college which sends out exploration parties will have representatives in this territory. The largest number of mounds which have been found here says an Omaha dispatch.

The Omaha Commercial Club is sending invitations to practically every country, and it is believed that less than a dozen, and possibly a dozen, of the leading anthropologists of the United States with their accompanying parties, will be engaged in exploring remains of the races which once lived in the Missouri Valley through Iowa and Nebraska.

The American Museum of Natural History, New York is preparing to send Prof. Huxley, Smith and two other members of the staff of that institution to Omaha as soon as the present summer closes.

The Smithsonian Institution, the National Institute of America, the American Field Museum of Chicago and the Carnegie Museum of Pittsburgh are also planning their intention of joining in the trip this summer, while Yale, Harvard, Columbia and Princeton universities have the matter under consideration.

There are the remains of two distinct people or races to be found in this section, and the archaeologists are deeply interested in them. One of these, the scientists call the "round heads," were men of intelligence, as shown by their high foreheads and the greatest degree of care with which the name "round heads" was taken. But the other race, the "long heads," were a more primitive people on the American continent, and never but once have their equals in the present day been found in America. This was in the famous Neanderthal skull of Europe. Only one skull of the "long heads" has been found, and scientists say this one may have been a freak. However, dozens of the "round heads" have been found, and it is no case is the bone and brain pattern more than half an inch higher than the "long heads'." The "round heads" have been characterized by scientists as being the lowest of the white race.

The main object of the gathering of the scholars is to explore the mounds in the mounds and house sites which dot the country to be worked over in the coming summer. The largest mound at Woodbine, Iowa, 400 feet in diameter and forty-five feet high. Another mound is at Logan, Iowa, and is 300 feet in diameter and twenty-five feet high. On the Nebraska side of the river the mounds are not so large, but they are more numerous. The object of no curiosity whatever to the farmers on whose lands they are situated.

In a number of some mounds north of Omaha, Dr. Robert Gilder, one of the most important discoveries ever taken in the world, has been found. The mounds of the stone and iron ages. Almost all of stone axes, and other implements of the stone and iron ages. The copper beads, copper wire and other evidences that the mound builder had been in contact with white men. This is the first time that such evidence has been found in archeology, and is pronounced by the American Museum of Natural History as the most important discovery of the century.

The house sites which will be investigated are scattered over this territory, and are more numerous than the past summer. Dr. Gilder made excavations in fifteen different sites and recovered thousands of implements and household articles. The mounds and occupants of the houses. One of these houses was sixty-four feet in diameter and had a circular fireplace in the present level of the surrounding ground. In one house alone there were three caches, and every one being filled with implements.

One of these caches contained an exquisitely carved head of pink soapstone, but the face of the head is foreign to those of the modern American Indian, and have been produced by a more primitive race. The Egyptian in character. The head is that of a sleeping woman. Effigy pipes made in this shape are birds and animals have been found in the old houses. These are made from soapstone and stone, neither of which stone is found in Nebraska.

Kansas Towns Make Pavement of Salt and Alkali Sae From Steam Boilers.

(Ellsworth Correspondence of the Kansas City Star.) The farmers in Central Kansas, as well as the city people in the towns, have been interested in good roads for several years, and in this part of the State one can see almost any kind of a road.

At one or two places in this country there are short roads where treatment has been given that is similar to the pavement of the city streets. At Ellsworth, here there are two blocks that fool four-fifths of the visitors as the town of Ellsworth. The roads were commenced about two or three years ago, consisting of coarse and fine cinders in layers, then a covering surface of water.

The water in this country is very hard, and in all the steam boilers, at least, it shows a heavy deposit of removed of alkali forms, which must be removed frequently and this, with the salt and alkali, is used for the pavement. The salt, is used on Douglas avenue. It forms a hard crust and makes a most excellent street. It is a superior material for the pavement of this town, and if the supply was so unlimited the farmers would use it for their roads. The city of Ellsworth, of the city would be paved with it. The salt and alkali crust on Douglas avenue is about three inches in depth and this lies on three inches of coarse cinders and three inches of fine cinders. It makes a most superior pavement, being like an asphalt pavement before it becomes dirty.

A Hard Pull.

I believe there's a story told of some team that in youthful days, being sent to a flower bed, and finding more certain flowers, he came back in and asked if he might not "flower the weed."

Our little Alfred probably has an great an aversion to work as had the team, for he has been at the street corner rather large weeds in the back yard, after a faint-hearted lift on one "Mamma, how do you think I'm going to pull these weeds when the whole world's hitched onto them?"

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—The mining market showed greater activity and strength today than for some time and increasing pu

The market opened with a bullish appearance, and showed no signs of weakening from the beginning to the end of the session.

Goldman Consolidated showed a gain of 10 points today and of 21 points over last night's closing.

Close. Bidders did not do so well, relative to the previous week. Only a 2-point sale over yesterday. The day was up to date, similar to last week. The Combination Fraction the same amount. The Hullfuge and Mannhatts were unchanged. The 2-cent dividend on Tonopah Mining had a good effect on the balance of the Tonopahs, all of which closed strong with practically no block coming out. Tonopah Mining closed at 7 1/2 bid, and was offered at 7 3/4. There was a little easing off in Rawhide Queen, which lost 4 points. The Coalition of the Tonopahs, which was the only one that was weaker, closing at 1.35 bid. Round Mountain broke even. Interest in Pittsburgh Still Peak is diminishing. The closing bid and asked prices, with sales on the formal call: Tonopah District— bid. Asked. Sales

THE CITY IN BRIEF

Fashion notes.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

"Political Progress."

A. C. Graham, chairman of the recent Recall Campaign Committee, will address the City Club on the above subject at its luncheon today at the Westminster.

Bankrupt Japanese.
Taka Joe, a merchant in the Japanese quarter of the city, filed a bankruptcy petition in the United States District Court yesterday. The stated liabilities are about $2000, and assets are nominal.

Helped by Election.
The March sale of postage stamps will eclipse all former records, judging from the receipts at the postoffice this far. Postmaster Flint stated yesterday that the receipts are $17,000 more than for the corresponding twenty-five days of March, 1933, an increase of 47 per cent.

Friday and Thirteen.
Frank Casassa of No. 1552 1/2 E. Fernando street reported to the East side police last night that his home had been entered by burglars during the afternoon, and clothing and other articles to the value of $1500 stolen. Entrance was gained by a key while the family was away.

Woman Lost and Found.
Mrs. Eliza Jones, 51 years old, wandered away from her home at No. 518 South 80th street, yesterday, and was not found until her relatives and the police had spent many hours in searching for her. She has recently shown signs of falling mental powers.

Michigan Alumni Luncheon.
The alumni of the University of Michigan will give a luncheon today at noon in the Hotel Hayward Café. The organization has 300 members in Southern California, and a good attendance and a good time are anticipated. All visiting alumni, who may be in the city, are invited to attend.

Pleasure and Business.
The Supreme Lodge of the Fraternal Brotherhood continued its secret sessions yesterday. Last night the men delegates and visitors were entertained by La Grande Lodge, and the women attended a theater party. The business session of the Supreme Lodge will be completed today, and tonight a banquet will be given at the Hotel Hayward.

"Myths of Archeology."
Miss Alice C. Fletcher, chairman of the Managing Committee of the School of American Archeology, addressed an interested audience at the Arrow Theater last evening on the "Myths of Archeology," unfolding the customs and habits, and describing the familiar implements of people who lived 10,000 years ago in the island of Crete, and their relation to the mythology of the world.

Injured in Car-Wagon Crash.
John W. Martin, a teamster in the employ of the Pacific Contracting Company, was painfully injured yesterday when a car of the Crown Hills line collided with his wagon at Wilmer street. The slippery condition of the tracks is declared responsible for the crash. The wagon was wrecked and the front of the car damaged. Martin sustained fractures of two ribs on the left side, and was bruised and lacerated.

Happy "Glad Handers."
So many applications have been received for tickets for the Yuma "Glad Hand" excursion that the Chamber of Commerce is planning to put two extra cars and another diner on the train. The excursion leaves here Monday night, by way of Imperial Valley. Acting Secretary Gurley said yesterday that he expected to have a number of extra reservations made before noon today. More than 100 tickets have already been sold.

Gospel Temperance Meeting.
Thomas Edward Murphy of Philadelphia will be the principal speaker at the Murphy gospel temperance meeting, conducted by his brother, William Murphy, in Blenheim hall, on Sunday evening. This will be Mr. Murphy's last address before returning to his eastern home, where he is engaged in the practice of law. His manner on the platform is much like that of his famous father, and he is eloquent and entertaining.

SUES ON MISBRANDING.

Government Confiscates Five Hundred Sacks of Rolled Oats on Ground of Adulteration.

Five hundred sacks of "Iowa Rolled Oats," consigned from the Acme Mills of Portland, Or., to Hase, Baruch & Co., of this city, were confiscated by an agent of the Department of Agriculture, yesterday, on the ground that the goods are misbranded and adulterated. The local wholesale firm is implicated in the transaction, as the consignor guaranteed the goods to be up to standard.

Suit was brought in the name of the United States against the 500 sacks, a proceeding "in rem," to have the goods lawfully adjudged misbranded. No action can be taken against the district against the Acme Mills, as they are outside its jurisdiction. But the Federal authorities in Portland may bring suit for an alleged violation of the food and drug act.

According to the Department of Agriculture's agent, the sacks marked "Iowa Rolled Oats," were partly filled with wheat, which sells for less money than oats.

"SOMETHING NEW EVERY DAY."

Most Startling and Sensational Purchase and Sale Women's Smart Spring Headgear Ever Announced by Any Los Angeles Firm.

ONE OF the principal reasons which sent our expert millinery buyer (Mr. Sternberg) scurrying off to the Eastern markets ten days ago was his avowed determination to have ready for the women of Los Angeles, two weeks before Easter, a $5.00 trimmed hat sale of such gigantic proportions and extraordinary values that it would be impossible of duplication from one end of the Pacific Coast to the other.

What a remarkable and astounding success he has achieved we leave for you to judge today.

ALEXANDER ELECTED TO MAYORALTY, WHEELER GIVING HIM A HARD RACE.

Socialist Carries Five Wards and Recall Candidate Four, Latter Winning by Only a Small Majority.

The vote of Los Angeles by wards for Mayor yesterday was as follows—showing a total of 27,000, and a majority for Alexander of 1702.

	Alexander	Wheeler
Ward 1	1431	1221
Ward 2	1187	1327
Ward 3	1289	868
Ward 4	2560	1453
Ward 5	3127	1514
Ward 6	2746	2829
Ward 7	617	1599
Ward 8	110	532
Ward 9	976	998
Totals	14,043	12,341

Scattering, 500.
Alexander's majority, 1702.

George Alexander, recall candidate,
was elected Mayor of Los Angeles yesterday, defeating his only opponent, Fred C. Wheeler, Socialist, by the narrow margin of 1702 votes.
The official returns give Alexander 14,043, and Wheeler 12,341 votes. There was a scattering vote of less than 500,
some of it going to Yerg, the Prohibition candidate, some to W. D.
Stephens, and one, at least, to Coun-cillman Barney Healy.
The total vote cast was approximately 27,000, out of a total registration of about 65,000, showing that far less than one-half of the total number of qualified electors took the trouble to go to the polls. The stay-at-home vote was far greater than in the last general election and in the municipal election of 1906.

Alexander carried four wards and Wheeler carried five.
The First, Third, Fourth and Fifth
wards went for the recall candidate, and the Second, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth were carried by the Socialist.

Alexander's majority in the Fifth Ward practically elected him. There was where he had his greatest strength. The Fourth Ward was a good second.

Wheeler's greatest support came from the Seventh Ward, and in the Eighth he beat Alexander five to one.
The vote for Alexander was nearly 10,000 less than that cast for Taft at the last general election, while Wheeler fell only a little short of the Bryan vote. In that election the vote was as follows: Taft, 23,519; Bryan, 12,753; Debs, 2688; Chaffin, 1409; Elliott, 444.

Alexander's vote lacked a little more than a thousand of the combined vote of Lindsey and Gates at the last municipal election, while Wheeler ran about 2000 ahead of the Harper vote.
In that election the totals were: Harper, 10,004; Gates, 9465; Lindsey, 6924; Wilson, 3377; Marek, 885; Phillips, 611.
The total vote cast at the general election of 1906 was 41,812; that at the municipal election of 1906 was 31,338.

NEW MARKET OPPOSITE OLD.

Company of Produce Men to Establish There.

Will Incorporate With Half-Million Capital.

Space for Five Hundred or More Wagons.

Some of the produce merchants and property owners in the vicinity of Third street and Central avenue who do not favor the removal of the Los Angeles City Market to Sixth and Alameda streets, as already arranged for, took steps yesterday to incorporate for $500,000 with the purpose of building a new market on the southwest corner of Third street and Central avenue. Options have been acquired on sufficient land to carry out the project, and a directorate has been elected.

When it became known that the Los Angeles City Market Company contemplated a move, those interested in maintaining a market at or near the present location began to organize.
They have quietly bought options on property between Third and Fourth streets and Central avenue and Crocker street for the purpose of establishing a permanent market.

Enough ground has been obtained.
It is understood, for all the stalls necessary, and to furnish room for 500 or more wagons. Work is to be started Monday on the Carl Leonhardt property to remove all buildings. There are several one and two-story dwellings, and two temporary stores are to be taken off. This entire plot, 250,000 feet, will be covered with concrete pavement and used as space for wagons.

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon the men interested in the venture decided to go ahead as fast as possible. The following named officers were elected, and the secretary was instructed to prepare incorporation papers: Thomas J. Stephens, president; Walter McStay, vice-president; Thomas J. Hampton, secretary; J. W. Boswell, treasurer; L. G. Zaiser, A. L. Martin and E. B. Rivers, directors.

"The proposition was this," said
Walter McStay last night. "The produce men are established on Third street and Central avenue, and if the market moved they would be forced to change location or provide market facilities of their own."

"Having established the fact that the Los Angeles City Market Company intends to move to Sixth and Alameda streets, we were forced to act. They have a right to establish themselves where they see fit, and we have no objections to offer, but we decided to stay where we are."
The plans of the Los Angeles City Market Company are to expend $125,000 in improving the property at Sixth and Alameda streets. The company gives as a reason for moving that the business is expanding so much that there is not sufficient room at the present location. This market is understood to be handling about $1,400,000 worth of business yearly. It is stated the present location of this market will be subleased, and will not be used for market purposes after the change is made.

There will be two markets in the future if the company organized yesterday goes ahead.

CHICKENS DINE ON ARSENIC.

And Owner Is Eager to Search Apartments of Fashionable Hotel Overlooking His Yard.

After several dozen of his fine chickens had been killed with poison, Arthur Cohn of No. 725 South Hope street, yesterday requested a search warrant that he might locate the
"fowl murderer."

He told Deputy District Attorney
Alexander that the trouble grew out of the fact that his roosters insisted on crowing early in the morning, instead of during the afternoon. He is an early riser, but his neighbors love to hug their downy couches until long after the sun is up.

The fashionable Chateau Frontenac is at No. 725 South Flower street. The back of this hotel overlooks Cohn's yard. When occupants of rear apartments ceased to curse, Cohn alleges,
they plotted. A sack of bread, naturally in arsenic, was thrown to his chickens. They ate thereof and died.
Cohn says he wants to search the Chateau Frontenac and swear out warrants against every one in whose apartment he finds arsenic.

The search warrant was denied.

ACROSS CONTINENT.

Wedding This Evening Culmination of Long Journey by Bride from Eastern Home.

Across the continent from the ancient little city of Perth Amboy, N. J., has come Miss Martha Marie Christensen, to become the bride this evening, of Heber W. Hubbard, who is connected with the Sun Drug Company. The romance began in the old city on the banks of the Raritan River, where the late Dr. Hubbard, father of the bridegroom, was well known for many years.
The wedding this evening will be at the beautiful home of Dr. William F.
Kearney, No. 2492 Juliet street, brother-
in-law of the happy young man, and Rev. Dr. Robert J. Burdette will officiate. The arrangements for the ceremony are simple, and only intimate friends and relatives will be present. The young couple will make their home in Glendora.

KILLED BY VENICE CAR.

Baker's Signal Not Heeded and Coach
Hits Him While Going at Full Speed.

Steve Webber, who came to this city
three weeks ago from Ulica, N. Y., was killed at 6 o'clock last night by a Venice car near Packingtown station.

Webber had been visiting his com-
patriot, Nick Webber, at Packingtown.
Seeing a car coming, he ran to the tracks and signaled it. The car did not stop and hit him while going at full speed.

Relatives found the injured man in the ditch, placed him on a car and took him to the city. He died before reaching the Receiving Hospital.
The body was sent to Breese Bros.
mortuary, where an inquest will be held today. The dead man, who was 34 years old, was a baker, but had not been employed here.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The police force and the Police License Inspector are in a race to see who will get the credit for increased license receipts.

George W. Harmer, of Santa Monica, complaining witness against Mrs. Fay Lowenstein, charged with fraud, was paid $117.50 by the woman, and he understood that he will not prosecute.

F. R. Hawley, a pawn broker convicted of stealing a valuable diamond ring, was released on a four-year term of probation by Judge Willis.

AT THE CITY HALL.

POLICE ZEALOUS FOR LICENSES.

RACING WITH INSPECTOR FOR INCREASED RECEIPTS.

Officers Say They Are Working Independent of the Newly-Made Police License Inspector of Los Angeles—He Claims His Plan Has Been Adopted.

A race is on between the police force and the Police License Inspector in the enforcement of the license ordinance. If the race is as successful as the City Auditor says it ought to be, the City Treasury will be richer by $100,000 license fees. Already the fruit of the first day's work has appeared at the City Clerk's office.

According to Inspector Craig, who got a good training in the hard race he went through the night he started the crusade of enforcement. Craig says he had the copies of the license ordinance printed in book form and distributed to both police and public.

But at Police Headquarters assurance is given that Craig's demand for both the booklets and the enforcement policy came after Chief Broadhead had his plan (the same) completed. However, as the plan outlined for adoption by Chief Broadhead only carries out the purpose for which Craig was appointed to see to it that the "regulars" have been taken care of.

Although the ordinance has for over a year required policemen to report all unlicensed business places, subject to the ordinance, Harper's commission ignored the ordinance and stood between the patrolmen and the violators. It was argued that the violators were "too busy" but the Auditor repeatedly pointed out that this was a mere pretext. The police resented Craig's appointment and now ignore him.

To show the new zeal of the Police Department, or Police License Inspector, or either, or both, the following facts from the police bulletin are sufficient to the unlicensed, whomsoever he be:

"You will have the lieutenants and sergeants of the afternoon watches divide up the beats into smaller territorial divisions, and each division will have a view to learning of every person, firm or corporation which may be carrying on any business, subject to the ordinance, the license is subject to the payment of a license tax under the provisions of the ordinance, on each and every beat in the city. This can be made, a copy of the printed booklet will be, by the afternoon officer, delivered to each and every person, firm and corporation, and the person to whom the same is delivered, will be then and there verbally notified by the officer that each and all the provisions of the ordinance must be complied with by such person, firm or corporation."

"Upon delivering the printed booklet, the officer so delivering it will make a note in his book, showing the time when it was delivered, to whom it was delivered, the name of the person, firm or corporation, and the street number of place of business; if the place is in an office building, the number of room will also be noted. The officer will then on the following morning, turn in to the City Auditor, report, showing all the above facts of the delivery of the notice, which reports you will forward to this office, as they come in."

"Division commanders will supervise the matter of these deliveries by their officers, so that no person, firm or corporation liable to the payment of a license tax, shall be overlooked, and so that the territory of the beat shall be carefully and systematically worked over, missing no ground."

"As they are received from the printer, further copies of the booklet will be supplied, but the work of the distribution will be begun tomorrow, the 24th inst. The work will be done by the afternoon officers and not by special details."

"When making the deliveries, the officers will especially call to the attention of the person to whom the booklet is delivered, the provisions of section 8 of the ordinance, found on page 1 of the booklet, providing that all licenses are due and payable on the 1st of each month, in advance. At THE OFFICE OF THE CITY TAX AND LICENSE COLLECTOR, City Hall, and notify them that prosecutions will be had, for failure to comply with this section."

BUYERS OF MULES.

At the request of the Board of Public Works Councilman Yonkin and J. F. Snowden will leave Sunday for Kansas City and St. Louis to buy about 300 mules needed for aqueduct work. Agents of the Board have scoured Southern California for serviceable mules, but cannot buy them. Those that could be bought are not up to standard. Yonkin did not decide to go until he assured himself that his absence would not prevent the Council having a quorum at next Tuesday's session, when the vote of the recall election will be canvassed. Councilman Wallace Drongold and Pease have leave of absence, but it is understood Pease and Wallace will attend the meeting.

Spring-street Lighting.

The Board of Public Works renewed the contract with the three electric light companies for the ornamental lighting of Spring street for another year at the rate of 3-4 cents per kilowatt hour.

GOO-GOO EYES BEAT LAWYERS.

WOMAN OF MANY ALIASES WINS IN CUTE GAME.

Meets Prosecuting Witness, Makes Settlement for Money She Was Accused of Stealing—Under False Pretenses and Saves Large Rebate—Santa Monica Man Quits.

George W. Harmer has quit. The innocent Santa Monica citizen, who rushed into court several months ago with a complaint against Mrs. Fay Lowenstein, in her varied career also known as Minnie Jones and Mrs. Doris Nelson, charging that she had taken about $100 of his hard-earned money through a well-played game, has made a settlement.

The accused woman was arrested and her hearing dragged through many days in the court of Justice Stephens. Lowenstein, and it may be expected that she will lose all interest in the subsequent proceedings. A week ago last Sunday, Harmer was asked to dine with the family of Mrs. Mary Reed on Boyle Heights, a sister of Mrs. Lowenstein. Harmer accepted the invitation and made merry with the folks. After the six-course meal the other visitors kindly left Harmer and the woman alone.

She told him that she would like to have the matter disposed of in some way, that she feared the effect of the disgrace on her son and hoped that he would agree to something that would end the matter. Then she worked the goo-goo racket on the man from Santa Monica and he succumbed, agreeing to take $117.50, a diamond ring worth $700 in cash, diamonds worth $300 and a note for $157.50.

The receipt signed by Harmer for the settlement is now in the hands of Deputy Dist. Atty. Horton and reads: Received of Minnie Jones, known to me as Mrs. Doris Nelson, $117.50, full settlement of the money received by her from me on and after January 2, 1927, by false pretenses.

The case against Mrs. Lowenstein, with her other aliases, is set for next Monday and the prosecution will announce that it rests in the introduction of testimony. If there is enough evidence up to this time the woman will be held.

IN DIVORCE COURT.

JUDGE CONSIDERS CHILDREN.

"I want to have Mrs. Long in court," said Judge Monroe, in the hearing of a divorce case yesterday. The case is that of the divorce of Mrs. Long from her husband, and the judge is considering the children. DECISION NEXT. SCHOOL BONDS IN BALANCE.

ARGUMENTS ON DEMURRER TO INJUNCTION END.

Attorneys for Both Sides Cite Law and Former Decisions, But Judge Bledsoe Intimates He Will Decide Present Case on Its Merits and as Soon as Possible.

ONLY ONE LEFT. DEFENDANT STANDS ALONE.

Judge Davis yesterday heard the action in damages brought by John Serpiglio, a minor by D. Serpiglio, his guardian, to recover $25,000 on account of the loss of three fingers suffered in an accident at the office of the San Pedro Tribune, December 13, 1926. The defendants in the case, when it was filed, were H. C. Downing, Justice of the Peace, E. Scott, John Anderson and James Swineford.

GETS PROBATION. MUST REDEEM IN FOUR YEARS.

In Judge Willis's court yesterday, F. R. Hawley, a pawn broker, convicted of stealing a fine diamond ring, the property of Isabella Williams, of Chicago, was placed on probation for four years. Hawley had spent the past week in jail and appeared in court in a crest-fallen condition. In showing him mercy, the court told Hawley that he wanted him to understand that he fully agreed with the verdict of the jury, and said that hereafter he must observe the ordinance of the city and never do business without a license.

Tatsu Ito, charged with murder for the slaying of T. Ohsaki, on March 11, last, withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of manslaughter. He will be sentenced April 3.

A. H. Woodburn, who pleaded guilty to forgery, was dismissed on a three-year term of probation.

W. H. Dean, convicted of embezzlement from the Mt. Whitney Mining Company, of which he was secretary, was allowed to go on a four-year term of probation.

The three informations against D. G. Hall, of Santa Monica, charging libel, were dismissed by the District Attorney.

A. L. Calvert, forgery, and George Buchanan, fictitious check, will be arraigned for sentence April 3.

JURY LOCKED UP. DISAGREEMENT LOOKED FOR.

The jury in Judge Willis's court last night could not find a verdict in the case against Agnes Mathewson, charged with shooting and severely wounding Rosie Lopez, a Mexican girl, last October, and were locked up for the night.

The trouble originated in a neighborhood quarrel, and the two women met on Jones street, prepared to fight it out. Mrs. Lopez, according to the testimony, "peeled" off her coat, and went after her antagonist in pugilistic style, when the agile Agnes drew a gun from beneath her waist and shot the Lopez woman in the stomach. For some days she hovered between life and death.

The hearing of the case yesterday brought out a big contingent of the Mexican population, and it required clever work of the court officers to keep order during the proceedings. A disagreement was expected last night.

Serpiglio, his guardian, to recover $25,000 on account of the loss of three fingers suffered in an accident at the office of the San Pedro Tribune, December 13, 1926. The defendants in the case, when it was filed, were H. C. Downing, Justice of the Peace, E. Scott, John Anderson and James Swineford.

GETS PROBATION. MUST REDEEM IN FOUR YEARS.

In Judge Willis's court yesterday, F. R. Hawley, a pawn broker, convicted of stealing a fine diamond ring, the property of Isabella Williams, of Chicago, was placed on probation for four years. JURY LOCKED UP. DISAGREEMENT LOOKED FOR.

The jury in Judge Willis's court last night could not find a verdict in the case against Agnes Mathewson, charged with shooting and severely wounding Rosie Lopez, a Mexican girl, last October, and were locked up for the night.

The trouble originated in a neighborhood quarrel, and the two women met on Jones street, prepared to fight it out. Mrs. Lopez, according to the testimony, "peeled" off her coat, and went after her antagonist in pugilistic style, when the agile Agnes drew a gun from beneath her waist and shot the Lopez woman in the stomach. For some days she hovered between life and death.

The hearing of the case yesterday brought out a big contingent of the Mexican population, and it required clever work of the court officers to keep order during the proceedings. A disagreement was expected last night.

CUTICURA STOPPED UNBEARABLE TORTURE

"About four years ago, I was troubled by a severe case of itching eczema, which was nearly to despair. I was treated by a London Hospital, but got little or no relief. I was then advised to use Cuticura, and after using it for a few days, the itching stopped, and the skin began to heal. I am now completely cured, and I can say that Cuticura is the best remedy for itching eczema that I have ever used."

Thousands of small print testimonials follow, all praising the efficacy of Cuticura in treating various skin conditions, including itching eczema, psoriasis, and other dermatological ailments.

On becoming dry, the itching was relieved, and the skin began to heal. I was then advised to use Cuticura, and after using it for a few days, the itching stopped, and the skin began to heal. I am now completely cured, and I can say that Cuticura is the best remedy for itching eczema that I have ever used."

Intense Itching Eczema Dermatitis Nearly to Despair—Chief of a London Hospital Worst Case He Had Ever Got Little or No Relief

CUTICURA STOPPED UNBEARABLE TORTURE

"About four years ago, I was afflicted with a severe itching skin disease, which was diagnosed as Eczema. I tried every remedy known to me, but to no avail. I was in a state of despair, and was advised to try Cuticura. I did so, and after using it for a few days, the itching stopped, and the skin began to clear. I continued to use it, and in a short time I was completely cured. I have since used it for my family, and it has proved to be a most valuable remedy for all skin diseases. I can only say that Cuticura is a most reliable and effective remedy for all skin diseases, and I can recommend it to all who are afflicted with such troubles."

THE SOCIALISTS AND WHEELER'S STATEMENT.

Socialist headquarters gave a spirited illustration of the who laughs last laughs best. The early return from the "proletarian" precincts, as they were called, gave Wheeler an enormous lead, and it looked to the Socialists as if Alexander could not catch him with a motor car. And as other returns came in the lead did not greatly diminish, so that the "communist" was jubilant, and made their little hall ring with shouts. Then some one opened the upright piano and started the Marseillaise hymn, and it was sung with volume, if not thoroughness, and after its echoes had died the Alexander precincts came in, and the Wheeler lead was maintained, and finally was completely obliterated.

WINNER ALEXANDER TALKS OF RESULT.

George Alexander learned the result of the election at night headquarters in the Equitable building about 8:30 o'clock last night. Before he came from his home he had learned by telephone that his election was assured by the returns then tabulated at night headquarters and his entrance into the crowd that choked the small rooms was greeted with a cheer. But he made no speech. He just stayed behind, and to find that he had a plurality over the Socialist and then he hurried home in an automobile.

"What have I to say?" he said to a Times reporter. "I have only to repeat what I have said all along—that I will give everybody a square deal. I will do my best to give the city a good businesslike, clean administration. I carry no enmities into the office. I will try to be Mayor for those who voted against me as well as for those who voted for me. I will do my duty."

"I have no political ambition. I did not want the nomination. When Mr. Stephens declined it, for some reason, I was asked, and another candidate could not be found, I did not want it. But when it was made plain to me that I must take it or the movement must end, I consented as a duty and a civic obligation. I have spoken ill of no one. I will enter the office without prejudice or obligation to any one, free to do my duty as best I see fit."

"What will be your policy as to the campaign?"

"I am not prepared to say whether I will make any removals or whether I will make any appointments. My mind on these things. But I do know that there will be no change in the present administration. I am abundantly satisfied with it and I am sure to make that statement as soon as possible. There will be no change in that regard."

"What of your policy on the liquor question?"

"Those who said I was going to make this a dry town did not speak truthfully. I have never said so. I have always said that so long as the people voted for license I was for maintaining the license liquor business. The strike between the two parties was against license I have said or of my acts in public life. I have served the people of Los Angeles sixteen years in public office and my record was open, yet no one produced a single thing against my character. I do think it is time now that the fight that has been made on me should stop, for I merely want the chance to do my duty in the Mayor's office as I have done my duty in other kinds of public service in the past."

Mr. Alexander said he had no appointments to announce, not even a private secretary, as he had not given thought to such things.

"I am tired out and am going to get one night's rest," he said as he leaped into the automobile and escaped the crowd that surrounded him.

AT RECALL HEADQUARTERS.

The temperature of recall headquarters rose and fell spasmodically last night as the reports from the precincts were brought in. The numbers became known as the balance of one way or the other in the footings. The first rush was of heavy Alexander precincts. Then came a dampening quantity of Wheeler precincts. Then the totals came back and forth for an hour and even Mr. Stephens, the boss calculator of the status of the vote, election was the quietest that could be seen in years. The supporters of Alexander apparently had an abundance of money to spend in getting the voters to the polls; the Socialist candidate had no funds, his supporters being all of the walking kind.

Recall automobiles buzzed around every polling place, and thousands of not change the result. Then the ap-petite of the crowd changed and the crowd became cheerful. The returns came so quickly, and the count completed at such an early hour, that most of the workers felt it was not a real election.

NOW FOR THE SHAKE-UP IN THE COMMISSIONS.

The three important commissions under appointment by the Mayor are the Park Board, Fire Commission and Police Commission. In the case of the Police Commission, all the members except Mr. Tufts and Mr. Dillon are serving expired terms; that is, their terms expired in January and they have continued because no successor has been appointed. It is held that the Mayor-elect will have the right to appoint new members to the Police Commission. An ineffectual appointment Mayor-elect Alexander will have is that of his private secretary.

Changes in the other commissions are possible only where the terms of members have expired, as on the Police Commission. A vacancy now exists in the Park Board, caused by the resignation of W. M. Humphrey, named by Harper as a member of the Board of Public Works to succeed Edward Kern.

If the commissions do as their members have indicated—place their resignations in the new Mayor's hands—there will be a shake-up in the commissions. But no appointment by him will be valid until it has been approved by the Council. Members of that body have no indication how they will receive either removals or new appointments. In all his proposed changes, Mayor-elect must consider the veto power of the Council, so that many or immediate changes, except in case of wholesale resignation, are not expected.

Probably no changes or appointments will be made by Mayor-elect Alexander pending determination of the quo warranto suit to test his right to hold the office. This suit will be started just as soon as the new Mayor is installed in office, and, of course, the officers will not be removed until the quo warranto suit is settled. He will probably feel obliged to hold on to his office until the quo warranto suit is settled, and before he attempts a reformation of the official family. This suit is in certain ways so that he could refer to them later and thus know how certain individuals voted.

Chamberlain was not taken into custody until an hour before the closing of the polls. A complaint regarding him was filed shortly after noon, and an officer was sent to the booth to keep watch. This officer reported certain details, and Officer Berchold was sent there as a witness in case Chamberlain repeated the act. Berchold observed no irregularities other than the peculiar way in which certain ballots were folded. He at least arrested Chamberlain on orders from Lieut. Murray.

At the second Chamberlain made the following statement:

"My arrest is the result of spite-work on the part of a politician who I work on top of the polling place this morning. He came in while we were working, and became officious. He tried to interfere, and was requested to leave. He refused to get out, and he was thrown out. He promised to leave, but he did not. He was thrown out, and I guess he has."

"There was nothing irregular about the filing of the ballots. They were handled in the regular way. I was for an hour and a half in that district, and performed my duties to the best of my ability."

Lawyer Stephens is the proprietor of a rooming-house. He was formerly head waiter in a cafe. His ball was fixed at 110, and he sent word to his friends to raise the amount if possible. It is not certain.

All Mayor-elect Alexander has to do to qualify is to take the oath of office before the City Clerk. No bond is required.

INSPECTOR ARRESTED.

TRIOLE AT THE POLLS.

Charged with violating the election laws, J. R. Chamberlain, an inspector in Precinct 32, Third Ward, was arrested yesterday afternoon and locked up at the central station pending an investigation.

Chamberlain is alleged to have opened ballots and looked them over before depositing them in the ballot box. Patrolman Flickert stated that he saw Chamberlain do this with five different ballots. It is further charged that the election official folded the ballots in certain ways so that he could refer to them later and thus know how certain individuals voted.

Chamberlain was not taken into custody until an hour before the closing of the polls. A complaint regarding him was filed shortly after noon, and an officer was sent to the booth to keep watch. This officer reported certain details, and Officer Berchold was sent there as a witness in case Chamberlain repeated the act. Berchold observed no irregularities other than the peculiar way in which certain ballots were folded. He at least arrested Chamberlain on orders from Lieut. Murray.

At the second Chamberlain made the following statement:

"My arrest is the result of spite-work on the part of a politician who I work on top of the polling place this morning. He came in while we were working, and became officious. He tried to interfere, and was requested to leave. He refused to get out, and he was thrown out. He promised to leave, but he did not. He was thrown out, and I guess he has."

"There was nothing irregular about the filing of the ballots. They were handled in the regular way. I was for an hour and a half in that district, and performed my duties to the best of my ability."

Lawyer Stephens is the proprietor of a rooming-house. He was formerly head waiter in a cafe. His ball was fixed at 110, and he sent word to his friends to raise the amount if possible. It is not certain.

All Mayor-elect Alexander has to do to qualify is to take the oath of office before the City Clerk. No bond is required.

Borrowing Is Poor Policy.

A young man just starting in life applied to a bank for a loan of $100, explaining the reasons why the loan was wanted and the certainty of being able to pay it back, at the same time offering a good name as indorse for his note. The banker heard him patiently and then said: "I'll let you have this money if you say so, but it will only be a convenience to you and not a necessity, for you can get along without it. My business experience teaches me that more good men are to be wall by putting their names upon other men's paper than for any other reason. If you never ask such a favor you need never grant it. My advice is never to ask." His advice was taken, and during nearly thirty years, this would-be borrower has not had to pay another man's debt. That prudent banker got his start in life by playing draw poker.—[Exchange.]

Wind Gauge for Railroads.

In order to protect trains from risk in crossing an exposed viaduct, a wind gauge is in use near Ulvershorn, Eng. The apparatus is fixed at one end of the viaduct, and has an actuating part, consisting of two boards, kept in a vertical position by springs, the movements of which are shown on a chart by means of the customary pen and clockwork appliances. The pen is operated by either board, according to the direction of the wind, and for greater exactness of time, the chart is fastened to a vertical rod, which is perforated, the holes in the paper corresponding with studs in the clock-work wheel. When the wind pressure reaches thirty-two pounds to the square foot, the spring boards refer to be adjusted to make an electrical contact, ringing bells in the signal cabins on either side of the viaduct. When this occurs, all trains are detained until the force of the wind moderates. At times a velocity calculated as equivalent to sixty-five miles an hour is recorded.—[Exchange.]
